1. The training is designed to meet specific needs of an employer, or a group of employers.

2. The employer has committed to employ or, in case of incumbent workers, retain the individual upon completion of training.

3. The contract provides that the employer will pay at least 50% of the cost of the training, including cash and in-kind contributions.

4. The training program provides the necessary skills to complete the training.

5. If customized training is being provided to currently employed workers, it meets the following requirements:

5a For participants not earning a self-sufficient wage or wages comparable to or higher than wages from previous employment (determined by Board policy).

5b. For the introduction of new technologies, introduction to new production or services procedures, upgrading to new jobs that require additional skills, workplace literacy, or other appropriate purpose identified by the local workforce development board.

6. The contracting agency has monitored the contract or has scheduled it for monitoring.
